Task Sheet

Session 1.1

Essential qualities of a key person?

This session is aimed at getting you to reflect and discuss what you personally feel are the most important skills and attitudes that a key person should have. This is the starting point, establishing where you are, in your understanding of this role.

Task 1

- What do you think are the essential qualities of a key person?

Task 2

Essential qualities of a key person - video clip 1

- Watch the video sequence of Ava being dropped off for her first full day at nursery and jot down brief responses to the observation questions.

  a. How does Ava react to being dropped off at nursery by mum?

  b. What do you notice about how the key person responds?

Reflection

- If you were Ava, what would you want from your key person?

- Are there any further qualities you would add to your list now?